

New Regent to Serve as
CNYCSS Annual Conference
Keynote Speaker

“The New York State Board of Regents—Toward An Opportunity to Learn”

Elizabeth Hakanson is now the Regent for the 5th Judicial District encompassing the counties of Herkimer, Jefferson, Lewis, Oneida, Onondaga and Oswego. She resides in Onondaga County.

A visionary, forward-thinking educator with more than 32 years of teaching experience from Early Headstart to adult education, Hakanson is known for her special ability to inspire learners to outperform expectations. In addition, she is noted for her outstanding mediation and relationship skills. With a proven record of designing and implementing educational strategies which employ multicultural and other diverse curricula, she encourages open dialogue.

Elizabeth has twice been identified as a Fulbright Scholar, as well as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow, and twice as a NIH grantee.
